FARMERS INSTITUTES
(Communicated.)
My work last week began at Esto, Knox county, a ten mile drive from Gambier. The roads were very muddy, and consequently slow traveling, but as the snow had disappeared beautiful fields of wheat were viewed and all are above the ordinary for this time in the year. The fields along the road were covered with a good sward of blue grass showing they had not been closely cropped last fall.
Throughout the neighborhood a goodly amount of commercial fertilizer is used, and it pays handsomely. From Esto we went to Holmesville and at the institute met Judge Stillwell, who is working to establish a Carnegie library, and also saw ex-Congressman McDowell. The professor has several large draft horses on his farm. He tells that one man has about 400 draft horses, 100 of which the owner feeds himself, while the balance are distributed among the farmers, costing from 30 to 35 cents a day per head, and all these will bring over $200 per head.
At the institute a Mr. Bildebach had on exhibition quite a number of fall apples in fine condition. He picks them when ripe, handles them carefully, selects the perfect specimens and wraps four together in a sheet of newspaper and packs them in a box and places them in the cellar, and they will keep until after the holidays in perfect shape.
From Holmesville we went to Navarre, Stark county, which is said to rank third in agricultural wealth in the United States. In this county most of the barns are well painted, and the well kept green fields present a very pretty picture to the eye of the traveller. Not as much live stock is kept in this county as formerly. The county has so many flourishing villages and three cities, so that a good local market for produce is established. More attention is being given to the production of fruit, vegetables and selling of the grain, instead of feeding it as in the years past. CARY W. MONTGOMERY.

The Way Benny Stands by Teddy.

Senator Joseph Benson Foraker performed his great act of "standing by Roosevelt" in the Senate Monday just as the Ohio Democrats said he would last fall. All that the Democrats predicted in the late campaign pertaining to the way that Foraker would "stand by Roosevelt" has been more than fulfilled this early in the session. The conflict in the Senate as on account of the President's dismissal of those riotous colored soldiers, and Washington dispatches give graphic accounts as to the manner in which Benny actually skinned Teddy, and hung up his hide to the public gaze. Yet the Democrats in making these predictions were denounced throughout the late campaign by the Foraker Diek machine as a set of prevaricators. The significance of this conflict that has sprung up so bitterly between Roosevelt and Foraker is that the President is right and the Senator is wrong.

In both New Jersey and Delaware there is the promise of a deadlock in the Legislature over the election of a United States senator. The Republicans have a majority in each of the lawmaking bodies of these States. In the former Senator John P. Dryden, the insurance magnate, is a candidate for re-election. There has been a bitter fight waged against him because of his machine methods, and this by reason of the fact that he is charged with having procured legislation for the insurance company of which he is the head which has been to his great pecuniary benefit and the injury of the policyholders. Four Republican members of the Legislature have announced their intention of remaining out of the Republican caucus unless he withdraws. Unless he receives the vote of one of these men he cannot be elected. He cannot hope to get any Democratic votes, and consequently if the Republican bolters stand firm he will have to yield his seat to some one else. In Delaware Senator Allee is a candidate for re-election but lacks sufficient votes. He is, however, apparently likely to deadlock the Legislature. His retirement, as well as that of Dryden, would be a good thing, provided better men should be chosen to succeed both.

It is interesting to note from the official reports of Philippine affairs that while the islanders were purchasing last year from United States manufacturers $210,716 of woven cotton goods, they purchased from English manufacturers over ten times as much or to be accurate $2,219,081. Which shows again that trade does not follow the flag as Mr. McKinley taught, but that it does follow the price list as every reading and thoughtful man knows.

The new governor of Colorado wants the legislature of his state to study the Valentine anti-trust law of Ohio and profit therefrom. The new governor and lieutenant governor of Colorado once lived in Ohio and they know something about this State. The Ohio man is to be found in pretty much every quarter of the country and wherever you find him you see him show some signs of appreciation of the progress of his native state. And Mr. Valentine, the author of this anti-trust measure, it should be remembered, is a Democrat.

The present population of Lyons, the third city of France, is about half a million.

PIPE LINE RENT BY IGNITING GAS

The main pipe line of the Ohio Fuel Supply company was wrecked by an explosion of gas which shook St. Mary's of the Springs, was heard in the East Side of Columbus and sent a column of flame 100 feet in the air. The explosion occurred near St. Mary's.

The company had walled in a section of its trench to give opportunity for the workmen to put in "tees" and make other connections, partly closed the hole and guarded the opening with a red flag by day and a red lantern by night. Something probably the wind, toppled the lantern into the hole.

Enough gas had accumulated to cause an explosion. This disrupted the pipe line and with a roar the gas from the main, running more than a cubic million feet a day tore off the partial covering and soared, a gigantic torch, 100 feet in the air.

As the pressure ebbed and flowed the flame alternately sank, and then with another roar, ascended to its supreme altitude.

No one was injured and no damage was done, except the minor injury to the pipe line, but the waste of gas was enormous, as a long time was required to cut off the pressure, ten miles beyond St. Mary's.

MAYOR CALLED SORE-HEAD.
Marion, O., Jan. 8.—Mayor Schell received a box through the mails which was thought to contain an informal machine, and for some time it was left unopened. Finally the lid was pried off. The box contained corks, burned matches and cigar stubs. A letter signed "Luke McGlue," accompanied it in which the mayor is called a "sore-head," a "right-wad," and a number of other vulgar names. A detective has been put to work on the case.

Miss Fannie McWane, Lake Geneva, Wis., writes of HAIR HEALTH: "My hair had been gray ever since I was sixteen years old. I started to get gray right on the crown of my head, and it was full of dandruff, and my scalp itched dreadfully. I used HAIR HEALTH according to directions, and my hair is now soft and glossy, and very few gray hairs left. I do not think I could get along without HAIR HEALTH now, for it is such a fine hair dressing."

CASES BACK IN STATE COURTS

APPLICATION OF THE CANTON BANKERS IS DISMISSED BY SUPREME COURT.

Dismissal Due to Failure of Ohio Court to File Opinion Giving Reason for the Denial.

Washington Jan. 8.—As telegraphed the Advocate Monday, Supreme court dismissed the so-called Canton bank wrecking cases dealing with questions involved in the failure last spring of the Canton (Ohio) State bank. There were five of the Canton cases before the court, representing 25 indictments, and of the five two were against Corwin D. Bachtel, cashier of the bank, and one each against William L. Davis, a vice president, and director; Charles H. Van Horn, teller, and Harvey H. Miller, a customer. These and 19 other indictments were returned by the grand jury of Stark county last May, under what is known as the Ohio free banking law of the state, which provides for imprisonment from one to ten years of any officer or agent of a bank who in any way attempts to deceive or defraud. The defendants relied entirely on establishing the unconstitutionality of the law under which the proceeding against them was brought. The effect of the supreme court order will be to leave the cases in the state courts, at least for the present.

The indicted men had made an effort to secure release by means of writs of habeas corpus, and failing in the state courts brought their suits to the supreme court. As that court refused to take cognizance of the case, they met with no better success.

Justice Brewer's dismissal of the cases was due to the failure of the Ohio state supreme court to file an opinion giving its reason for denying the application of the defendants for their discharge. He held that the state court may have construed the words "any banking company," as provided by the Ohio statute, to include all banks, whether incorporated under this particular statute or otherwise organized. "If therefore," he said, "does not affirmatively appear that the state court decided a federal question, and the writ of error must be dismissed."

ATTORNEY GREEN DEEPLY INTERESTED

In Problem of Practical Christianity. Took Part in Debate in Rockefeller Church.

Granville, Jan. 8.—D. E. Green Esq., Denison '01, a successful young attorney of Cleveland, is deeply interested in the problem of practical Christianity as applied in the metropolis of the State. His notable address on the Immigration Problem in Cleveland, after being called for and delivered a score of times, has been published in pamphlet form by the Ministers' Association of Cleveland. It is bristling with interesting statistics and significant deductions from them. Last week Mr. Green participated in a debate held by the Men's Club of the Euclid Avenue Church of Cleveland on the relation of the church to the labor problem, for which he gathered extensive data before hand. A feature of the occasion was a bitter attack made by some one present on John D. Rockefeller, who is a member of that church and a regular attendant from June till October. The attack was received with entire good humor by the friends of Mr. Rockefeller present. It is rather a singular fact that the church where the oil king is a member is the greatest "people's church" in Cleveland, and has the poorest church edifice of any prominent church in the city. Though Mr. Rockefeller gives generously he will contribute only when the church gives generously also. The pastor, Dr. C. A. Eaton, is a fearless, outspoken man of the people holding meetings in the parks and public square of the city when the weather will permit; and although the church spends little on its building, it employs about fifteen men and women for all their time as pastor, assistant pastors, visitors and charitable workers. Mr. Rockefeller is superintendent of the Euclid Avenue Sunday school and serves during the months when he is in Cleveland. Nothing in his manner or in that of those about him, indicates him as the richest man in the world.

HIS ONE REQUEST.

Chief Justice Fuller of the United States Supreme court was a guest on a yachting trip down the Chesapeake last summer. There were a number of persons on board including a prominent St. Louis lawyer, who became sick as the yacht passed outside the capital.

"Is there anything I can do for you?" the chief justice asked the lawyer, who was leaning over the rail.

"There is only one thing," the lawyer said, "I wish your honor would overrule this motion."

"Police of the city of New York arrest each day an average of 48 men who say that they have no occupation."

PAIN

Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablet—coaxes blood pressure away from pain centers. Its effects are charming, pleasantly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.

If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty, for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.

Bruse your finger, and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. You'll find it where pain is—always. It's simply Common Sense. We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

PIANO PLAYER IS UNDER ARREST

CLARENCE THOMPSON ACCUSES WATERBURY OF TAKING AN OVERCOAT.

Property Said to Have Been Recovered at Sharon Where Musician Was Playing.

J. M. Waterbury, champion long endurance player, who made himself famous here a month or more ago by playing the piano for over 25 hours and 15 minutes, is again in town, this time being the guest of the jailor at the city prison. Waterbury was arrested upon his return to town Monday night after a trip to the eastern part of Ohio and Pennsylvania. He was arrested on the complaint of Clarence Thompson, the Newark man who attended him while he was doing his long distance piano playing stunt. Thompson charges that Waterbury stole his overcoat and traveling bag, together with two shirts and a white vest. The overcoat and bag were recovered by the police at Sharon where Waterbury played an engagement. Thompson says he is willing to waive prosecution if Waterbury will pay all the costs incurred in the case.

I felt relieved after using your sample, so I sent right on to a druggist and bought a 50c box which I believe has cured me entirely. I feel more myself now than I have felt in over a year, for I have been bothered about that long with the piles. I have told all my friends about this wonderful discovery and will recommend it whenever I can. You can use my name anywhere you choose. Respectfully, Mrs. Chas. L. Coleman, Tullahoma, Tenn."

There is surely no good reason why any sufferer from piles should continue in agony. If you are tortured with this disease, we will send to your address in a plain sealed wrapper a sufficient quantity of the Pyramid Pile Cure to show what relief it brings. Many have been practically cured by this amount of the remedy alone. The sample package which we will send you contains the identical remedy sold in all drug stores at 50c. per box. Write today and prove to your own satisfaction that you can be cured. Pyramid Drug Co., 77 Pyramid Building, Marshall, Mich.

It Made A Flying Start This Stock Reducing Sale of Ours

The store was thronged today, and everybody had pleasant things to say. We were glad to see a great many people come with the papers in their hands, to ask for the goods advertised. That's right—the store news is to use like a catalogue—bring it with you and go through the store you'll find all that's printed, and more.

The story of the sale is the simplest thing imaginable—a child can see it's meaning. We're not overstocked—we know better! But the unusually mild weather has left a surplus of winter goods and we're going to sell that surplus in ten or twelve days.

A SET OF HARNESS USED FOR 34 YEARS

A merited recognition of a Newark merchant and mechanic is found in the letting by the Board of Public Safety of the contract to make the double set of harness for the new patrol team about to be installed, to the veteran harness maker Colonel Griff Rosebrough. The new harness is complete in every particular, will swing the same as the harness in the fire department and will be equipped with the celebrated Barry hitch appliances. Nearly 34 years ago Mr. Rosebrough made the first set of swinging harness for the fire department and as a surety of good material and workmanship the same set of harness can be seen in service at the Central station today. Among the fire department ladders they number their old jolly friend Griff as the "king bee." Mr. Rosebrough has been in the harness business since 1832 and is in fact Newark's oldest continuous business man.

B. & O. SIGNAL NOT OBSERVED BY THE ENGINEER OF THE
"DEAD TRAIN."

To Probe Harriman Deals—Strike
Declared Off on Southern Pacific Road.

Washington, Jan. 8.—It was disclosed at the coroner's inquiry into the Terra Cotta wreck on the night of Dec. 30 that engineers and conductors have not heretofore generally observed the rules of the Baltimore & Ohio in regard to the regulation of their watches in accordance with the company's standard clocks at Baltimore, Cumberland and Washington. Engineer Hildebrand of the "dead" train admitted when recalled that he failed to observe any signal at Takoma Park on the night of the wreck, as he thought that station was "dead," and consequently did not look for the signal.

To Probe Harriman Deals.
Chicago, Jan. 8.—Traffic deals put through by E. H. Harriman, it is said, will be the main point of inquiry that will be started by the interstate commerce commission at its session here. For this purpose subpoenas have been issued for the appearance of Julius Kruttschnitt, director of maintenance and operation of the Harriman system, and J. C. Stubbs, traffic manager of the Harriman lines. J. T. Harahan, the newly elected president of the Illinois Central, it is said, will also be called as a witness.

Strike Declared Off.
Houston, Tex., Jan. 8.—The strike of the Southern Pacific firemen was formally declared off following the signing of an agreement by Vice President and General Manager Thornwell Fay and General Manager W. G. VanVleet for the Harriman railroads affected by the strike; Vice Grand Chief W. H. Willis for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and Vice Grand Master Timothy Shea for the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. Differences will be adjusted by arbitration.

William Dietlinger, of South German street, was painfully injured on Monday evening at the B. & O. yard. Shlirer was called and, after examining the foot, stated that two of the smaller bones had been broken. It may yet be necessary to amputate two of the toes.

HARRIMAN RECOVERS FROM AN OPERATION

New York, Jan. 8.—E. H. Harriman gave personal assurance that he was not seriously ill. He said: "I underwent an unromantic little operation recently, but it was not of any consequence. I hear there have been wild reports of my sickness, though I have not read the newspapers. I expect to go out at once." Mr. Harriman refused to discuss the interstate commerce commission's investigation of the railroads in which he is interested.

Don't bear unnecessary burdens. Burdens of a bad back are unnecessary. Get rid of them. Doan's Kidney Pills cure bad backs; Cure lame, weak and aching backs; Cure every form of kidney ills. Lots of local endorsement to prove this.

E. S. Cramer, proprietor of a livery and boarding stable at 59 West Main street, and living at 95 Eddy street, Newark, O., says: "I endured backache for a long time before I knew that it originated from the kidneys. I felt well in every way but my back was a continual misery to me. There was dull aching in the loins, extending around to the left side. If I remained in one position for any length of time and then attempted to move quickly, sharp, shooting pains would strike me, sometimes in one place and sometimes in another. I tried liniments and used several remedies with no effect. Hearing at length of Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at Crayton's drug store. It is really remarkable how quickly I found relief. The remedy seemed to attack the cause of my trouble and in time it so eradicated every sign and symptom of it that for the 15 months since I used Doan's Kidney Pills, I have had no return of my trouble."

The date of the two men bowling contest between Newark and Zanesville has been changed to Wednesday night, January 9 at Zanesville. This promises to be another fast game as both teams are confident of victory. Considerable interest has already started in the duck pin tournament on Music Hall alleys. Ralph Rossel starts off in the lead with a total of 203 pins. This tournament lasts all week.

The knife prize for last week was won as follows: ten pin, John Bausch, 247; quintet, Ralph Rossel, 65.

STETTLER WAS FIXED.

At the big meeting in New York, the National Board of Arbitration, the court of last resort for the minors, permitted the union of the Texas and Southern Texas leagues which was the cause of the application for reclassification. In the new league there are to be Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Galveston, San Antonio, Houston and Cleburne. The league is to have call upon the cities of Temple, Lake Charles and Beaumont.

A number of decisions were handed down last night. The board decided that Percy Stetler, who last season managed two clubs, those at New Castle, Pa., and East Liverpool, O., should pay back to the New Castle club $195; that he should be fined $25 by the board and stand suspended until the fine is paid.

The teams of Dayton, O., and Portland, Ore., each claimed E. J. Pokorney, a player. He was awarded to Dayton, O.

DRINK PLENTY OF WATER

VALUABLE PRESCRIPTION WHICH ANYONE CAN PREPARE.

Nature's great remedy for Stomach Troubles, Kidney and Bladder Diseases and Rheumatism.

"The people here do not drink enough water to keep healthy," exclaimed a well known physician. "The numerous cases of stomach trouble, kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism are mainly due to the fact that the drinking of water, nature's greatest medicine, has been neglected."

Stop loading your system with patent medicines and cure-alls; but get on the water wagon. If you are really sick, why, of course, take the proper medicines—plain, common vegetable treatment, which will not shatter the nerves or ruin the stomach.

When requested for such a prescription for the cure of rheumatism and kidney trouble the answer was: "You must make the kidneys do their work; they are the filters of the blood. They must be made to strain out of the blood the waste matter and acids that cause rheumatism; the urine must be neutralized so it will no longer be a source of irritation to the bladder and most of all, you must keep these acids from forming in the stomach. This is the cause of stomach troubles and poor digestion. For these conditions I would suggest the following prescription, which is composed of only vegetable ingredients, which can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacy. Any one can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. To be taken in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime, but don't forget the water. Drink plenty and often." This valuable information and simple prescription should be posted up in each household and used at the first sign of an attack of rheumatism, backache or urinary trouble, no matter how slight.

SALARIES OF SAFETY BOARD

City Solicitor Bolton Makes Claim as to the Law Regulating Differences in Salaries.

The reading of the appropriation ordinance Monday night brought forth an interesting argument when some one brought up the question of the salary of the members of the board of public safety. The ordinance provided that $225 be set aside to pay the salaries of the directors. Of this, Julius Juch was to receive $150 while W. W. Avery gets but $75. This is for the six months ending with June 30 this year. Upon the motion of Councilman Conrad the ordinance was amended appropriating but $150, or $75 each for the six months.

The city solicitor declares that this is illegal and that the council will be compelled to appropriate $150 for Mr. Juch's salary in order to have the measure legal.

The matter came about in this way. A year ago in December the city council passed an ordinance to reduce the salary of each member of the board of safety from $300 per year to $150. The municipal code states that the salary of no city official can be reduced or raised during his term of office. At that time City Solicitor Bolton was serving a four year term as member of the board of public safety. His time was not out until January, 1908. When he assumed the duties of city solicitor it was necessary for him to resign and Julius Juch was appointed to fill out the unexpired term.

Theodore M. Ball was the other member of the board and his term expired with the end of the year and Wallace Avery was appointed to succeed him. As Mr. Ball's term was ended, Mr. Avery was compelled to take the position at the reduced salary of $150 per year.

On the other hand while Mr. Juch was as new in the department as Mr. Avery, he was billing the unexpired term and according to the claim of the solicitor his salary could not be changed and he continued to draw the $300 per year salary.

Mr. Conrad, who opened the argument said that in his opinion the salaries of both men should be the same, whether it was $300 or $150 per year. The city solicitor claims that the measure will have to be amended again before it is legal, for in his opinion Mr. Juch's salary can not be changed until January, 1908, when his time expires.

The following officials of the Presbytery were present: F. Benton Shoemaker of Dresden, moderator, presiding; Revs. Donald M. Ross of Zanesville, L. K. Wells of Zanesville, David Dempster of Granville, S. M. F. Nesbitt of Pataskala, T. A. Cosgrove of the Second church of Newark, G. W. Applegate of Hanover, C. W. Wallace of Newark, Grant Jones of Newark, Elders F. M. Haynes of Hanover, Richard Shide of Salem church of Newark, Charles O'Bannon and J. H. Roe of the Newark First church.

The Rev. Messrs. Ross, Nesbitt and Cosgrove addressed the Presbytery for one hour, giving a review of the work done by the Rev. Mr. Boyce during his residence in Newark, and praised the departing Newark pastor in fitting terms, expressing for the body, to the Rev. Mr. Boyce, the regret of the Presbytery caused by his departure after such a long and pleasant association during six years of which time he has been clerk of the Zanesville Presbytery.

A committee composed of the Revs. T. A. Cosgrove, D. M. Ross, F. B. Shoemaker and Mr. Charles O'Bannon was appointed to prepare the letter of endorsement to be delivered to the Lima Presbytery and the Findlay church.

The Rev. Grant Jones of Newark was chosen moderator of the church during the vacancy caused by the leaving of the Rev. Mr. Boyce.

The pastor of the First church will leave for his new charge in Findlay, Ohio, on Tuesday, January 15, and will deliver his farewell sermon on Sunday, January 13, and his first service will be held in the Findlay church on the following Sunday, January 20.

Both in and out of his church the Rev. Mr. Boyce has cultivated a circle of the most devoted friends who can scarcely find words to express their genuine sorrow that the union is to be broken.

Struck by Runaway Team.

New York, Jan. 8.—A runaway team dashed into a crowd at a First avenue crossing, killing a baby in its carriage and so injuring the child's mother, Mrs. Minnie Klappel, and three other children, that they can hardly survive.

He Showed Them.

"I want to know," said the attorney for the plaintiff, who was cross examining the witness, "just what the defendant said when my client told him he was a bigamist and that the facts had been found out?"

"He didn't say anything," answered the witness.

"Well, what did he do?"

"He acted kind of lassy."

"I want to know exactly how he acted."

"Yes."

The witness suddenly reached over, grabbed the attorney by the hair, threw him down on the floor and proceeded to hammer him.

"This is the way he acted," he said, "till the other fellows interfered. Some of you chaps pull me off, will you?"

Sunshine to Sufferers

The secret of good nature is good health. Poison is the enemy of good health and pain is the ally of poison. Rheumatic poisoning is the result of an excess of Uric Acid in the blood. This excess is introduced in food and drink. When the blood becomes glutted with Uric Acid poison nature rebels and in her endeavor to drive it out the poison is forced into the joints or the muscles—anywhere. The dull, gnawing ache and the sharp aching pain accompany Rheumatism in its various forms. Twisted limbs and ceaseless suffering is the penalty of those who do not treat their Rheumatism with the right remedy. For over twenty-three years has been bringing sunshine into the lives of hopeless Rheumatic cripples. It quickly stops the pain, reduces the swelling, and eventually clears the system of every particle of Rheumatic poison. BLACKBURN VICTORY SWETT LITTLE Castor-Oil Pills

Another Agricultural Product

Denatured Alcohol That Is Expected to Benefit the Whole Nation and Bring More Wealth to the Farmer.

Horny Handed Son of Toil Can Now Revel in Still Life and Build All the Stills He Wants — Can Make His Own Alcohol Chiefly Out of Waste Products on the Farm—A Blessing and a Boon to Many Industries.

By ROBERTUS LOVE.

UNCLE SAM is now engaged in the free and unlimited coinage of alcohol. In plain prose, the United States passes upon alcohol manufactured by any citizen and admits it to the market free of taxation. The only requirement is that the output must be doctored with some ingredient which renders it utterly and irretrievably unfit for beverage or medicinal use.

This doctoring process is called denaturing. Thus we have denatured alcohol, which chemists call commercial or industrial alcohol. The other kind is just plain alcohol, used in the manufacture of intoxicants.

The free alcohol law went into effect Jan. 1. That date may be remembered as the birthday of a new and glorious era for American industries. Such was the expressed opinion of many persons who supported the measure when it was before congress and who have looked forward with high anticipations to its going into effect. Some men grew so enthusiastic over the prospect of untaxed alcohol that they dreamed of a national utopia. They foretold all sorts of marvelous ameliorations to result from the abolition of the tax. The poor man was to become independent. The Standard Oil trust was to be smashed to smithereens. The octopus was to be severed of several of its most wriggling legs and rendered a cripple for life. Particularly was the small farmer to benefit, even to the attainment of opulence and a town house on Easy avenue.

A Rosy Outlook.

It appears now that a large degree of extravagance entered into these predictions. Conservative opinions of experts like Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief of the national bureau of chemistry, do not justify any such serene and snowy attitudes of hope. Yet the outlook is very promising, even rosy. The taxless alcohol age in this country has just begun. In what ways and to what degree it will benefit the people must be left in a large measure to the slow results of time. Rome required more than one day in building. The benign effects of the free coinage of alcohol may require several years before making a very great showing.

All the authorities seem to agree that the removal of the tax will have a highly beneficial effect upon the development of many American industries. It would appear that this benefit is to be distributed pretty generally throughout the nation. Farmers will come in for a large share. As they produce all the raw material from which alcohol is made, they deserve a considerable slice of the cake.

Heretofore the government has collected an internal revenue tax of $2.07 a gallon on alcohol. This made its use for purposes of light, heat and power practically prohibitive and very greatly limited its employment in the many arts and industries to which alcohol is naturally adapted. Engines and stoves and lamps by the million have had to burn Standard Oil products, either gasoline or kerosene, thus helping to fatten the octopus which almost everybody hates and fears. Alcohol minus the tax could be used to much greater advantage and with very much less danger. As a consequence of this high tax comparatively little alcohol was manufactured in the United States. Immense quantities of excellent material for its manufacture went to waste.

H. W. WILEY AND WESTERN CORN STORAGE.

itate. In a mountainous country the variegated scenery is sufficient to occupy men's minds, but on the wide prairies or in the desert people must meditate, must do some solid thinking. Nearly all great reform movements have originated in flat countries.

In his own meditations Mr. Murdock arrived at the conclusion that the high tax on alcohol was one of the chief inequities of government. Having been imposed at a time when the government sadly needed revenue, it was not an instance of original sin, but it had become sinful because of altered conditions. It was a check upon industrial and individual development.

An Inspiration From the Prairie. Mr. Murdock introduced the first bill for denatured alcohol. He may be called, therefore, the father of free alcohol. It was an inspiration from the prairie, a reform originating in a flat country. It spread rapidly over the hills and hollows of the nation. Everybody supported it, practically speaking. The wood alcohol trust alone opposed it in the open because it promised to cripple that industry. Wood alcohol is a poison for which there is no antidote. It has a horrible odor and gives off fumes which produce blindness and other serious effects upon workmen who come in contact with the fumes. It has been used very largely in many of the arts and industries which require alcohol. On wood alcohol no tax has been imposed. Its poisonous character precluded its use in the making of liquors or medicines.

The labor unions strongly supported the measure, largely because it was desirable to get rid of wood alcohol in the hat and shoe factories of New England and elsewhere and in the various other industries and occupations where alcohol is necessary. Painters, wall paperers and decorators are among those whose health has been impaired by reason of the use of wood alcohol in the materials they must employ. The farmers supported the bill solidly. Hon. Nahum J. Bachelder of New Hampshire, head of the national guard, with 800,000 members.

A Still in His Own Back Yard. At first Speaker Cannon of the national house of representatives opposed the bill, but its advocates sent into "Uncle Joe's" Illinois district, in the great corn belt, some agents, who visited the farmers and demonstrated the superiority of an alcohol lamp over the kerosene lamp. They showed that it gave a much clearer and steadier light, did not smoke or smell, was not liable to explosion and would be cheaper than the old coal oil lamp if the alcohol tax were removed. But as the clinching argument they told the farmers that any one of them, if the free alcohol bill passed, could erect a still in his back yard or down by the creek or duck pond and make alcohol for his own use and for sale out of the materials which were going to waste on his farm.

It is understood that "Uncle Joe" heard from the farmers, and the bill was no longer obstructed. That little alcohol lamp visited many other congressional districts. It shed much light on the subject. But after the bill became a law, to go into effect on New Year's day, it was discovered that it lacked the one provision necessary to render its benefits available to the small farmer, so that he might set up his own little still and convert his surplus crops and his waste products into alcohol. The apparent intention of the framers of the measure, Mr. Murdock and his co-laborers, was to introduce an atmosphere of universal still life, so to speak, throughout the American rural communities. In Germany, for instance, there are about 70,000 stills where alcohol for denaturing is manufactured under government supervision. Very many of these stills are quite small—the backyard sort. An amendment to the law which enables the small farmer to erect and operate his still and meet the regulations without having to send his alcoholic material to a larger still for manufacture was introduced early in the present session of congress by another newspaper man, also from a flat country, by the way. Senator Henry C. Hansbrough of North Dakota sponsored this amendment, which is calculated to set thousands of farmers to work at the manufacture of alcohol for home consumption—altogether externally, of course—and for sale.

The Despised Cob Valuable.

If the farmer finds that corn is selling too cheap to earn a profit he can manufacture it into alcohol. We are told that the average yield of an acre of corn will produce 130 gallons of alcohol. This is from the grain alone. The stalks, which now are used for fodder and sometimes burned or plowed under, will make another hundred gallons of alcohol to the acre if used before they dry out. Even the despised cob when green possesses starch and sugar enough to be worked into the alcoholic output with profit when used in connection with other materials. The sugar corn cob is particularly saccharine and consequently valuable.

Potatoes yield about 225 gallons of alcohol to the acre. This is the official estimate on the kind of potatoes grown for human food. There are other varieties, well known in Germany, which yield 500 gallons of alcohol to the acre. Sugar beets are calculated to give 224 gallons of alcohol per acre. A bushel of corn, we are told, will make five gallons of alcohol. Corn at 40 cents a bushel brings a high price. Frequently it is much lower than that. Denatured alcohol, it is figured, can be made and sold profitably at from 8 to 10 cents a gallon. Illuminating oil costs from 16 to 20 cents. Yachtsmen, motor boatmen and automobilists now pay about 22½ cents a gallon for a good quality of gasoline to run their engines. A gallon of alcohol will supply more horsepower, it is claimed, than a gallon of gasoline.

But consider the byproducts of the farm and orchard that may be used in making alcohol. In addition to the corn cob and stalk, there are apple parings, pea and bean hulls, tomato peelings, waste fruits and vegetables of all kinds that are not marketable. It would appear that you can put almost any old thing except your last year's hat or a last year's bird's nest into the still and turn it into alcohol.

The farmer should find life still more worth living—still life, you know. He can get rid of his smeary and smelly coal oil lamps and use alcohol illuminants. He can cook with alcohol instead of cutting stove wood. He can run his feed cutters and other farm machinery with alcohol. And all this light, heat and power he can generate at small cost from the products of his own farm, largely surplus and waste products. If all these dreams come true life down on the dear old farm should become decidedly more pleasant. With no stove wood to cut the farmer will have more time to fish.

A Boon and a Blessing.

There is the sweet potato, which is exceedingly productive of alcohol. The farmer raises it. He can cook sweet potatoes for his table on a stove heated by sweet potatoes. In winter sweet potatoes will keep his house warm. Sweet potatoes will light his rooms for the long winter evenings by the sweet potato fireside. Sweet potatoes will grind his corn and cut his chop stuff for the cows in the stable. Sweet potatoes will run his automobile to town and buy him the necessities of life which he does not produce himself. Verily the sweet potato, in the form of alcohol, will be a boon and a blessing. In these uses it will give real warmth and cheer, not the artificial stimulation which tapers from time immemorial have felt from the use of the denatured "craythur" internally. Hereafter alcohol proposes to help instead of hurt. In that fact lies a revolution. Dr. Wiley thinks that for the present it will be unprofitable to manufacture alcohol in very small quantities. No farmer, of course, can manufacture any at all without first registering his still and having the tanks locked by a government agent. Uncle Sam proposes to see to the denaturing himself. The law provides for this, and if anybody imagines that he can evade the tax which still applies to undoctored alcohol he is sadly in error.

AMUSEMENTS

A MUCH DISCUSSED PLAY.

It is perhaps true that "The Lion and the Mouse," which Henry B. Harris will present here at the Auditorium Thursday, January 10, is the most discussed play in America today. In clubs, drawing rooms, street cars and especially in commercial circles the Klein piece is talked of again and again. Undoubtedly this has proven to be one of the factors in its phenomenal success for everyone seems desirous of witnessing this powerful play of American life. Mr. Klein has taken as the theme of his story one of the modern money barons who in his attempt to mass a fortune beyond anything ever known in the world, tramples all conscience and honesty under his golden heel to accomplish his ends, and because a judge of the Supreme court hands down decisions diametrically opposed to his interests he forthwith has him removed, and the highest office in the United States is made a playing by this modern octopus. While the theme is serious in aspect it is said to be full of brilliancy, wit and humor.

ORPHUM THEATRE.

This week's vaudeville bill at the Orphum will no doubt attract large crowds as in addition to the usual piano overture, motion pictures and illustrated song, which are always kept fully up to date, there will be a singing and dancing act by the two famous marks, a novel sensational comedy acrobatic and barrel jumping act by Win. Deonzo and company, a comedy musical act by Stoddard and Wilson, and a clever singing and yodling turn by Annie Leslie Williams.

MISS BINGHAM IN "THE LILAC ROOM"

Actress Delighted With Reception Accorded Her--Talks With the Advocate.

Amelia Bingham was cordially received by an enthusiastic audience of the Auditorium Monday night, and appeared to advantage with an excellent supporting company in the rather serious comedy, "The Lilac Room."

The delightful combination of Miss Bingham's graceful figure, costly gowns, and well developed talent, with the beautiful scenery of the four acts of the play, although the scenery was old and worn in appearance, and the well written comedy, made an impression upon her audience which is not likely to be forgotten soon.

Like all of the productions in which Miss Bingham has appeared, "The Lilac Room" is great for detail both as regards the lines and the property.

Few persons realize, until they see a production in which special attention is paid to the little things in the way of property and "business," what they are really missing in seeing a play in which only the absolute necessities are to be observed.

Miss Bingham said to the Advocate Monday evening that it was her delight to bring out those details of her work because it helps her all the more to live the role she is interpreting.

"Do you know I enjoy keeping my public laughing and I like a nice little comedy like this for a season or two," said she.

"Now, I think the trouble with so many of our artists of today is that they confine themselves too much to one class of work; comedy, serious work, or something else.

"For my part, I try to vary my work, as much as possible. For one season I like to do serious, in another I like comedy, and it's because I think if you confine yourself to one line you become rather stale after a while, no matter how good you try to be."

"Yes, comedy is much easier for me and this piece I have now is much the lightest work I ever did. "Now, going back to the subject of a change, some people expect to see me do well only in something like "The Climbers," and many will say of an actress: 'Oh, I've seen her in so-and-so, and didn't like her very well,' where if they should see the same actress in another style of work they might be very much impressed. But I should like to continue just as I am doing and I hope and expect to some day have a repertoire of varying styled plays and give them much after the idea of Richard Mansfield."

"Do you recall a visit to New York some years ago and what you appeared in?"

"No, I do not. I'm hopping about the country so much, you know, and can't remember the towns visited very far back."

Miss Bingham seemed delighted with the reception accorded her here. The company left for Marion, Ind., Tuesday at 5:15 a. m., from where they will go to South Bend and then to St. Louis for a long engagement.

DAMAGED STEAMSHIP AND KEEL OF THE ROOSEVELT

New York, Jan. 7.—Robert E. Peary's Arctic ship, the Roosevelt, was hauled out Thursday for examination. It was found that the rudder was gone, most of the false keel was torn away, most of the stern irons were crushed, that the hull was seriously damaged as a result of the use of dynamite to break up huge ice flows, and that the entire ship was weakened by the taking out of many beams and other material for fuel on the trip. Photographs were made of the injuries and will be submitted to Mr. Peary.

Mr. Laverie, superintendent of the ship yard, said the ship was in bad condition, and it was a wonder that she stood the trip home. He said it was likely she would remain in dry dock for the rest of the winter, and that the alterations would be made in the spring, as Mr. Peary had plans of his own for reconstruction.

CATTLE DYING

Because of Heavy Snowfall in Northwest Stock Unable to Find Enough Food.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 8.—A telegram from Medicine Hat, Alberta, says hundreds of cattle are lying dead along the Canadian Pacific railroad fences between this point and Calgary, as the result of being unable to get feed on account of the unprecedented heavy fall of snow, which has now lain on the ground since the middle of December and has been gradually increased in depth. Weakened by starvation, the cattle have been drifted before the wind to the snow fences and have there perished. The loss to the cattlemen north of here will, it is said, put many of them out of business.

FIREMAN

Rescued Alive From the Ruins of a New York Warehouse.

New York, Jan. 8.—The search for the three firemen who went down with the ruins when Hill's paper warehouse was burned Sunday night was suddenly halted as the sound of some one rapping on a timber from within the debris was distinctly heard. For nearly 24 hours, with brief respites, the firemen had sought the bodies of their comrades, and at first they doubted their senses. As they stared at each other a voice from beneath the charred planks, and recognized as that of John Seifert, was faintly heard. Seifert said: "I am alive and so is Campbell. We can't see anything. The debris is all about us. Get us out as quick as you can." Three hours later Seifert was taken from the ruins. He was very weak and one of his legs was found fractured.

How to Start Off the Day

Students of Hygiene All Agree That the Right Kind of a Breakfast Is Essential.

Thinking people are giving more and more earnest thought as to how to start off each new day so as to put themselves in the best possible physical and mental condition for the work of the day. It is an interesting subject, so interesting indeed that it has attracted the attention of a host of the world's leading scholars and authors on hygiene and many different opinions have been written for the guidance of the people. On one point, at least, all are agreed. This is that the right kind of a breakfast is essential. A perfect breakfast is impossible without Malt-Vita, that delicious, crisp, vitalizing whole-wheat food. In making Malt-Vita the whole of the wheat, after being cleaned, is thoroughly steamed and cooked in absolute purity and then mixed with malt extract, a powerful digestive agent, which converts the starch of the wheat into maltose, or malt sugar. Maltose is great food and the weakest stomach digests and assimilates it without effort. After being rolled into thin, wafer-like flakes the malted wheat is baked under such intense heat that it comes from the ovens crisp and brown—positively the most delicious, most healthful food in the world. Always ready to eat. All grocers, now 10 cents.

LODZ LABOR WAR COMES TO AN END

Lodz, Poland, Jan. 8.—There are indications that the labor trouble here is coming to an end, but there are no signs of a halt in the reign of terrorism and crime. Since the first of the year 16 workmen have been killed in street fights and 62 wounded. The terrorists have issued a proclamation warning the people not to leave their houses after 6 o'clock at night because "the extermination of our political foes must continue." The labor leaders issued a proclamation advising the workmen to resume work immediately, and recommending the formation of a committee composed of workmen and employers who shall endeavor to find a definite solution of the labor difficulties.

PISTOLS LACKING

At Lima, Ohio, Where Society Girls Want Real Revolvers to Fire Upon Burglars.

Lima, O., Jan. 8.—A fashionable Lima is now "gun-shy," but is aiming for due to the death. The epidemic of burglaries by which the residence section has been harassed for a week has continued unabated, and yesterday the P. W. P. house was again entered and ransacked, and the homes of Lloyd Ward and R. M. Hughes were visited. At a moment the residence of Dr. J. P. Lynde was ransacked by the door of a man on a rifle who fled. All of these burglaries have been perpetrated during the wealthiest residents, and society girls are now demanding firearms from their parents.

It was thought that the textile strike had been amicably settled through the intervention of President Diaz and Vice President Corral, but it would appear that a number of men are dissatisfied with the terms.

NEGRO SOLDIER,

Fort Reno, Okla., Jan. 8.—The finding of a khaki jacket, one sleeve of which was covered with blood and punctured presumably by a bullet, led to the arrest of Corporal Knowles of the Twenty-fifth infantry, colored, on the charge of murdering assaulting Captain Edgar Macklin on the night of Dec. 21. When arrested the negro officer was found to have a severe flesh wound in the wrist, which he is said to have been treating himself for over three weeks. The wound in the wrist is declared to have been inflicted by the same size bullet as went through the sleeve of the jacket, which bore Knowles' initials.

COUNCIL PASSED ORDINANCE FOR APPROPRIATION

CITY WILL SPEND OVER $60,000 DURING THE HALF YEAR ENDING IN JUNE.

Office of Assistant Chief of Fire Department Was Created in Ordinance Last Night.

There was much delay in getting the council machinery in motion on Monday night, this being the first meeting of the new year. The cause of the delay was the meeting of the finance committee before the council meeting was called to order, it being necessary for them to go over the appropriation ordinance which was to be presented at the meeting. It was after 8 o'clock when President prot tem Beadle finally rapped for order.

President Russell and Councilman McNaley were absent when the roll was called, reducing the voting strength of the body.

The finance committee submitted a report approving of the appropriation ordinance as prepared and read, for introduction. The mayor reported that he had collected in county fines and costs $117, city fines and licenses $164.75, making a total of $281.75.

The auditor made a report showing the official abstract of the vote cast at the special waterworks election held December 31. The bid of the Ohio Central Railway company for carrying passenger in the city limits over the proposed route from the square to the south city limits via Third, Poplar and German streets, was received and filed. This was followed by an ordinance granting the company permission to construct a street railway line along the streets mentioned. The work is to be commenced 18 months after the passage of the ordinance and it is agreed to have the line in operation by January 1, 1910. The ordinance was referred to the street committee.

The appropriation ordinance was then introduced by Councilman Mosser. The various funds were divided and apportioned as follows:

The ordinance was passed as above but it still had to be approved by Mayor McCleary and it is intimated that he will refer it back to the finance committee for further consideration, as the committee cut down several items for the mayor.

An ordinance was introduced by Mr. Caine creating the office of assistant chief of the fire department. The ordinance provides that the new fire officer will also act as captain of the Central or No. 1 company. The salary was fixed at $85 per month, this being an increase of $10 per month over the salary of the captain under the former ordinance.

An ordinance was passed to issue bonds for the construction of a sidewalk on the east side of Flory avenue. It will cost $85.20. Councilman King's art wagon ordinance went through after Mr. King assured the councilman that the purpose of the measure was to avoid the spilling of dirt from wagons hauling gravel, etc.

Mr. King's ordinance regulating the use of advertising was passed after being read for the third time. The measure was amended before being passed. A clause in the ordinance gave the owner or renter of property authority to allow the placing of signs on the sidewalk. A former ordinance makes this a misdemeanor, so this section was stricken out.

A resolution directing the Board of Service to have plans and estimates etc., for the Union street paving prepared was adopted under a suspension of the rules.

An ordinance was passed on third reading determining to proceed with the High street paving. This matter has hung fire in the council for over a year.

Councilman King decided that it was a sidewalk on the west side of Eighth street between Main and Church that he wanted instead of on the east side as his former resolution stated. This measure was passed.

Several other minor resolutions were passed before the meeting adjourned.

Long Live the King.

Is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throats after all other remedies have failed, and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by F. D. Hall, Druggist. 50c and $1.00. School Shoes

THE merit of our School Shoes is unquestioned. We have been exceedingly careful in the selection of this very important part of our stock. We realize that it is no use for us to sell a shoe to Boys or Girls going to school, that will not wear well. It would be folly to do so. Our reputation is, in a measure, due to the attention given this particular line. As in the past, we expect to sell for a long time to come, the kind of school shoes that will insure your continued custom. All we ask is a trial of our school shoes. Afterwards you'll come here of your own accord.
